

Religious Observance Template

Purpose

The purpose of the template here is to guide thinking and help prepare for RO events making sure that all important features outlined in the Religious Observance Review Group Report are in place.

Application

This template can be used in an RO event of any size, length, age group or location

Who Completes this?

The person or chaplaincy team in charge of the RO event should complete this consulting with the RO team in the school and if appropriate SMT.

Filling the Boxes in the Template

- ❖ Rationale: why this event is being done, how it is being shaped and how it fits in with the life of the school community
- ❖ Title: What it's going to be called
- ❖ Stage: which age group, year group or stage of pupils this is aimed at
- ❖ Aim: The broad aim of what is intended to be achieved through this event.
- ❖ Objectives This section is in two parts.

1] The first links the event with the sensings laid out as examples in the Review Group Report. (Sensing mystery; values; meaningfulness; a changed quality of awareness; otherness; and challenge - p13). It is these factors which differentiate an RO event from simply e.g. a PSD lesson or an administrative assembly in the life of the school. This list may not be exhaustive, but it does give an indication of some essential elements of the spiritual dimension of human life.

While it cannot be guaranteed that pupils and staff will experience a sense of mystery etc, events should be designed which allow for this to happen and to be nurtured.

This section allows staff to chart this objective over the course of a year and the breadth of a pupil's experience of school life

2] The second part lays out what a pupil or member of staff should be able to do at the end of the event, by e.g. stating new things learned, being able to analyse their own beliefs; or, identify challenges to respond to and how they will do it.

- ❖ Link with ACfE. This task enables us to locate the RO event within the broader educational programme of the school, either through the four capacities of a Curriculum for Excellence.
- ❖ Is this part of a series? It is helpful over the longer term to plan how this event will fit in with others, or how the themes may be developed or built on.

- ❖ Introduction. Deciding how the event will be introduced and who will do this are important in setting the tone for the whole event. Careful thought should be given to this as much as to any other section.

- ❖ Stimulus/ Stimuli. The stimulus/ stimuli which allow(s) for reflection and provoke(s) consideration of spiritual themes is/ are key to the event. The possible stimuli within our contemporary culture, religious traditions and current events are many and varied. The forms in which this can be presented allow for considerable variety. Care has to be taken to justify why a certain stimulus and means of delivery have been chosen.

Examples of stimuli could be e.g. a faith based story; a clip from a film or a TV programme; a drama; poetry or reading; a PowerPoint presentation, a charity speaker; a story from a member of the school or wider community; local cultural event a piece of contemporary music; or a national/ international event.

Key to this process is understanding how the stimulus supports the aim and objectives of the event and are linked in with the broader aspirations of RO.

- ❖ Guided Reflection. Having presented the stimulus/ stimuli a careful teasing out of the issues raised is required in order to allow those present to interpret and be fully involved in the event. Again, this is done with a view on the aim and objectives of the event.

- ❖ Response & Possible Next Steps. This can take many forms. It could be a challenge to go and further reflect on the issues raised. If the stimuli and reflection have been powerful, then this may be enough. If a challenge to do something arises out of the preceding sections then action may be appropriate. Prayer (used inclusively or allowing non-participation) may be the truly human action as a result of the issues considered.

This also allows the opportunity to link the RO event with the wider curriculum

- ❖ Evaluation (a) Linked with the objectives set out above. Obviously an exam is not an appropriate means of evaluating whether the objectives have been achieved, but a short discussion with selected pupils, or with the pupils on the Pupil Council may be.

Under the Standards in Scotland's Schools. Act 2000, 2.1. account must taken of "so far as is reasonably practicable, to the views (if there is a wish to express them) of the child or young person in decisions that significantly affect that child or young person, taking account of the child or young person's age and maturity"

If a shared value of the school is "respect" then genuine consultation with pupils models this value.

- ❖ Evaluation (b) the team who ran the event should take time to consider the event, whether or not the objectives were achieved (and if not why not), and lay out next steps.

- ❖ Evaluation (c) evaluation of pupil participation and engagement with the event.

- ❖ Running Order allows everyone involved to know what comes next.

The Template

Part 1 - structure

Rationale	This section should include a statement setting the scene. E.g. "within the school community/ local community/ pupil's lives/ pupils and staff experience.... This assembly intends to explore this theme and enable .....
Title	Title of Assembly or event
